Mr. Cramdore

Jim,
Good luck in everything
Gladys

Jim
This is your Pal Ed I want you to always remember the fun we had this year. I'll see you in Orchestra again after the Xmas Vacation and write you in the Xmas Know what I'm
Your Pal
Ed.

Jim
you make running a library so much fun.
Good Luck

Guy

Jim
You are a real cool guy and I've had a great time working with you. Best of Luck always

Jim
Lots of luck to a nice guy Dave

Jim -
It's been neat knowing you this year. You're a real sharp guy with a lot of fun things in his character. Best of luck in all your future endeavors

Jim,
Four years have slipped by fast, but not fast enough so that I didn't get to know and understand you - a little. Luck always in what you decide to do.

F.C.
'67

Good luck always Jim. You're a real nice guy + really smart! Best always.
Lil

Jim
Good luck to a good friend of mine. Don't be real bad on the trip & stay as nice as you are now.
Cheryl

Our Exchange Student

Hans Deuter Thum came to us through the Youth For Understanding program from Luneburg, West Germany. During the school year, he has taken courses in United States History, World History, Government, Sociology, and English. He is Staying at the home of Martin Pline, Jr., 13370 Knox Road, Portland, Michigan. We have learned much from Hans, and we hope that when he leaves in August, he will remember his stay at Portland High School as a profitable and enjoyable experience.

Jim,
remember when your old and grey.
How Borges class made us gay.
How this all the poetry I know Frank '67

Jim,
Your a real nice guy and a good friend
I hope
